

EGI FINANCIAL ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION OF SUBSIDIARY OFFICER

Toronto, January 19, 2015 — EGI Financial Holdings Inc. (TSX: EFH) (“EGI Financial”) announced today that George Kalopsis has tendered his resignation as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company’s subsidiary, Echelon General Insurance Company.

“George has been a strong contributor to the Company, a respected mentor to many and a great colleague to all. He is the consummate professional, always operating with the highest integrity,” said Steve Dobronyi, Chief Executive Officer. “We wish him all the best for the future.”

About EGI Financial

Founded in 1997, EGI operates in the property and casualty insurance industry in Canada, and Europe, primarily focusing on non-standard automobile insurance and other niche and specialty general insurance products.

Contact information

Kathy Shulman
Investor Relations Manager
905-214-7880
ir@egi.ca
www.egi.ca